Class Quiz (With answers)

1. What are some of the sources that the strength of the Warrior comes from?
List at least three.

The firey affection of God's heart. Setting the mind on things of heaven. Love. The victory of Christ. Our eternal destination.

2. What are some of the attitudes of a warrior? List at least three.

If we don't give up or back up with Jesus, we will win.

Warriors like to fight. We just don't want to be bored.

Warriors are patient and wait for the commander to give orders.

Don't go out in presumption but wait for the commander's orders.

3. When does a warrior go into battle? Why only under these conditions?

When called by God. A mature warrior will not go into a battle because it looks good but not called by God--it will lead people into danger. If God didn't send you, you can get beat up pretty badly. Captain has to have called you into the spiritual battle before you go into it. Learn to stay where God has given you authority.

4. Read Revelations 19:11-21 (Printed in Scripture for Meditation below). What are some attributes of Jesus? List at least four things that demonstrate his power and essence.

- With justice He judges and wages war
