QUEENSLAND THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit Biblical Hebrew B. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

UNIT OUTLINE SEMESTER 2 2016

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.acttheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the section in the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Coursework Handbook, headed “Academic Misconduct”. Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Coursework Handbook, headed “Guidelines for Essays.” See also the QTC Student Handbook. All essays should comply with these standards.

Information about this unit

Unit description

This unit continues the introduction to Biblical Hebrew begun in LA003A. The first half of the course will be devoted to further study of morphology and syntax and the completion of a first-year Hebrew grammar. The second half of the course will comprise an orientation to the Hebrew Bible and translation of selected texts. Satisfactory completion of LA003A Biblical Hebrew A is a prerequisite.

Learning outcomes

On completion of LA003B students will:

Know and understand:

- Hebrew grammar and syntax through completing one standard grammar of Biblical Hebrew
- About 200–400 words of Hebrew vocabulary
- Grammatical issues that influence translation and the meaning of the text

Be able to:

- Apply grammatical discussions of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament
- Translate about three chapters of the Hebrew Old Testament into English
- Discuss translation issues that influence exegesis

Be in a position to:

- Continue translation of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament
- Identify the interplay between translation and interpretation
- Commence exegesis of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

This course prepares students for a lifetime of studying the Old Testament in its original language, through completion of a first-year grammar and hands-on experience working through the complete Hebrew text of Ruth. Our aim is to build skills in original language exegesis through application of Hebrew grammar, increase of vocabulary, and the introduction of advanced topics and employment of intermediate level tools. Students will be encouraged to embrace the lifelong study of the Old Testament in Hebrew as an act of Christian discipleship, for the glory of Christ and the good of his church.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

This is an elective unit.

Students taking this unit need to have successfully completed LA003A.

Students taking this unit cannot also take LA001 with or after this unit.

This unit is delivered at undergraduate degree level, and is equivalent to the ACT 300 level units. It attracts the 300 level unit fee.

How this unit is organized & what we expect of you

Pre-work

Students are expected to have revised their coursework from Hebrew A over the Semester break. The first two weeks of Hebrew B course will revise and answer any remaining questions, but should not be regarded as adequate substitute for revising over the break. The first two quizzes will correspondingly examine Semester 1 material on Nouns and Verbs.

Weekly classes

The unit is taught over a 13-week semester. Biblical Hebrew B meets for three 50 minute classes each week for all 13 weeks of the semester. Each week during semester will begin on Tuesday with a brief Question and Answer on any material covered in the previous week. The remainder of each Tuesday class will comprise a brief overview of the next chapter. Wednesdays will comprise further review of the week's material and review of exercises. Unless otherwise specified in class, students are expected to complete all of the set exercises at the end of the unit in the textbook. Further instructions will be provided for translation and vocabulary in class and on Moodle after we have finished the textbook.

This unit is worth 4 credit points towards your degree. At Bachelor level, a 4 credit point unit is considered to require a total time commitment of 6 – 8 hours per week, and 7 - 9 hours at MDiv level.

Students are required to attend all lectures, complete any set pre-reading and complete all assessment tasks by the relevant due dates.

LA003B Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle.

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Late submission of assessment, without prior permission, will be taken into account in determining your mark.

ASSESSMENT TASK	DESCRIPTION
8 Quizzes 24% of final grade	Eight grammar and vocabulary quizzes (3% each), with the dates advertised in the unit outline. These quizzes will be administered on Wednesday mornings according to the schedule above. While the focus will be on immediately preceding material, students may expect earlier material to be included.
Review Test 26% of final grade	A one-hour exam covering Chapters 20-24, along with other material covered in the first 7 weeks will be held in Week 8 of semester.
Final Exam 50% of final grade	This comprehensive two-hour exam will cover translation of a mix of seen and unseen Hebrew passages, with questions on parsing, syntax and exegesis, as well as small sections examining students' understanding of the Masorah, textual criticism, text-linguistic analysis and poetry analysis. Within this final examination, the allocation of marks will be 45% for translation (of studied passages), 35% for exegesis (of studied passages), and 20% for translation of an unseen passage (with unknown vocabulary supplied where appropriate).

Guide to Assessments:

Weekly Quiz

The weekly quiz will aim to test your understanding of the material covered in the past week, with a small section testing material from the week(s) prior to that. The purpose is to diagnose potential areas of misunderstanding and to flag material that requires more work.

Review Test

The one-hour Review Test will cover Chapters 20-24 of the text book, along with other material covered in the first 7 weeks.

Final Exam

The two-hour End-of-Semester exam will cover all the material in Semester 2, with a vocabulary section examining vocabulary that occurs 100 times or more in the Hebrew Old Testament, weak verb paradigms and translation of seen and unseen Hebrew passages, and with questions on parsing, syntax, and exegesis. Students will be able to bring in a hard copy of Scott to help them interact with the Masorah and critical apparatus.
